

[This is a modern transcription of an original document.]
[Transcribed from James Buckelew's Scrapbook, n.d.]

AN ELEGANT COUNTRY RESIDENCE TO LET, FURNISHED. – A large, first class brownstone Residence, finished and furnished in most complete manner; elevated ground, fine views; with ten acres of lawn, orchard, fruit and garden, &c.; house contains 18 rooms and basement with all modern improvements; large parlor, wide hall and an elegant dining room, all finished in hard wood; outbuildings &c.; situated at Jamesburg, N.J., two hours by rail from New York and two from Philadelphia; one and a quarter hours from Long Branch; to be let for six months or more, during the owner's absence in Europe, to a family able and willing to keep the house and grounds in order. Address H. C., box 6,099 New York Post Office.

[End transcription.]

Inverness was built by John Dunn Buckelew in the 1870s. John Dunn was appointed consul to Germany in 1875 by President Grant, thus necessitating the need for a caretaker for his mansion which was located near the corner of Half Acre Road and Gatzmer Avenue on the hill behind the gas station.. The mansion burned in 1920.

Transcription Notes:

Original punctuation and spelling left intact for historical accuracy.

Digitalized 6/13/2008; by Thomas C. Bodall, Jamesburg Borough Historian

This document is property of the Jamesburg Historical Association and may be used only for research and/or educational purposes. Reproduction in whole or part prohibited without expressed written permission of the Jamesburg Historical Association.

For permission contact:
Jamesburg Historical Association
203 Buckelew Avenue
Jamesburg, NJ 08831-1642
732-521-2040
<http://www.jamesburghistory.com>